

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

RICHARD L. MITCHELL

Plaintiff,

v.

OFFICER O. QUINTANILLA, et al.,

Defendants.

Case No.: 2:22-cv-01827-ART-BNW

ORDER

9 Pro se plaintiff Richard Mitchell, a Nevada state prisoner, began this action by 10 submitting a civil-rights complaint under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 together with an application to 11 proceed in forma pauperis (“IFP”). (ECF Nos. 1, 1-1). On November 28, 2022, the Court
12 denied Plaintiff’s IFP application because he did not complete the third page of the Court’s
13 form application. (ECF No. 5). The Court gave Plaintiff until January 28, 2023, to either
14 pay the full $402 filing fee for a civil action or file a new fully complete IFP application.
15 (Id.) Before that deadline expired, Plaintiff filed a notice stating that he had requested new 16 financial documents from prison officials on November 28, 2022, but had not yet received
17 them. (ECF No. 6).

The Court finds good cause exists to grant Plaintiff a second extension of time to either pay the filing fee or file a new fully complete IFP application containing all three of the required documents. Alternatively, if Plaintiff is having difficulty obtaining the required financial certificate and inmate account statement for the previous six-month period from prison officials, Plaintiff must complete and file the first three pages of the Court's IFP form together with a declaration detailing the efforts he took to acquire a financial certificate and inmate account statement from prison officials. If Plaintiff chooses to file the first three pages of the IFP application and a declaration, the pages must be from the Court's approved form IFP application and fully completed, and the declaration must detail when Plaintiff requested the financial documents from prison officials, who he conferred with about the status of the documents, when that happened, who he followed

1 up with after he did not receive the documents, when that happened, and prison officials'
2 responses to his questions, if any. If Plaintiff's declaration demonstrates he has done all
3 that was possible to acquire the financial documents from prison officials, the Court will
4 consider his IFP application complete.

5 It is therefore ordered that on or before March 16, 2023, Plaintiff must either:

6

- 7 • Pay the full $402 filing fee for a civil action;
- 8 • File a new fully complete application to proceed in forma pauperis with all three required documents on the Court's approved form; or
- 9 • Alternatively if Plaintiff Mitchell is not able to obtain his financial certificate and inmate account statement from prison officials, complete and file the first three 10 pages of the application to proceed in forma pauperis for an inmate on the Court's approved form together with a declaration detailing the efforts that he 11 undertook to acquire the required financial documents from prison officials.

13 The Clerk of the Court will send Plaintiff a courtesy copy of the approved form
14 application to proceed in forma pauperis for an inmate and instructions for the same.
